

Hillary Theyer is the City Librarian for the Torrance Public Library. She started working in libraries at fifteen, quickly falling in love with the library as a place of learning for all. She has worked for the Beverly Hills Public Library, Sacramento Public Library, Folsom Public Library, and the Palos Verdes Library District before coming to the Torrance Public Library in 1999. With the City of Torrance she has been a children's librarian, branch manager, and head of public services before becoming City Librarian in 2011. She has her Masters of Library Science from UCLA and a Masters of Public Administration from CSULB.
